TOWN TALK.

Ideal Fourth of July weather prevailed yesterday. The average temperature was 74, while the maximum was 92 and the minimum 60.

The fire department was summoned to a patch of burning grass near the intersection of Fifth and B streets, at 9:30 last evening, but the hay fire was out before the end of the steep pull was reached.

A. L. Paul of 1055 South Seventh East street reported to the police yesterday afternoon that a bullet, evidently fired by a careless but patriotic citizen, crashed through the front window of his house, narrowly missing one of the occupants.

Holden O'Connor and Frank Byron, two of the city prisoners who escaped on Sunday, are undoubtedly well into Morgan or other county jails. The latter was seen by a couple of gentlemen who, through an accident to their vehicle, were compelled to stop at a point near the creek canyon. One of these is said to be wearing less hair than formerly, while the other's pompadour was much stiffer than usual. The jailbirds visited the camp at about midnight, both armed with a good-size club. It was their evident intention to walk away with anything that they could lay their hands on, but questions put and answers given convinced the escapes that the occupants of the wagon were well armed, and after receiving a couple of blows from the club, continued on their way. They claimed to be en route to Ogden, but had missed their way.

FOURTH IN THE CITY

Celebration On the Go-as-You-Please Order.

CHEERED BY BULLETINS

FURTHER GOOD NEWS ADDED TO THE ENTHUSIASM.

The Sky Red With Rockets Last Night—General Feeling One of Intense Gratification—Pyrotechnical Displays In All Parts of the City—Sugar Ward Celebration.

It was not the noisiest kind of a Fourth of July celebration in the city yesterday, on account of the masses generally basking themselves to the several resorts, but those who did stay had as fine a time as any one could wish.

Because the news of the night before was confirmed in all its joyful intensity. Salt Lake knew that Sampson had destroyed Cervera's fleet and taken him prisoner, and that was a signal for all who remained up town to jubilate, and jubilate with all their force. As the bulletins came in and were posted, and it was seen that the news of the night before was all true, and more, too, the crowds which gathered to read the messages broke into intense cheering, which reached an apex when it was said that the loss of the United States was only one man killed and two wounded; that Cervera and 1,200 men were prisoners of war, and that in all probability Santiago would fall by tomorrow.

Of course there were not many boys left in town to shoot off cannon crackers, but those who were here did their duty nobly, and were added and abetted by several grown men, who bought fireworks and helped make the noise.

In the hotels the general opinion prevailed that so far as this government is concerned the matter of the war is much stiffer than usual. The jailbirds visited the camp at about midnight, both armed with a good-size club. It was their evident intention to walk away with anything that they could lay their hands on, but questions put and answers given convinced the escapes that the occupants of the wagon were well armed, and after receiving a couple of blows from the club, continued on their way. LIEUT. WELLS MENTIONED

BELIEVED TO BE BRIANT H. WELLS, OF SALT LAKE.

A Telegram From Senator Cannon—Not Named Among Those Seriously Hurt—Death of Augustine Confirmed—Lieut. Turman, Formerly of the 16th, Fatally Wounded—Several Officers of the 16th Shot.

There can be little doubt but that the D. H. Wells referred to as wounded at Santiago is Lieutenant Briant H. Wells, of the Second Infantry.

The dispatch states that the wounded officer was with the Sixteenth. This may be accounted for in two ways. First, the Sixteenth was stationed here so long that an officer known to be from Salt Lake might have been credited to that regiment.

LIEUT. B. H. WELLS, Infantry, Reported Wounded.

ited to that regiment in the excitement and hurry incident to getting off the report. It is more likely, though, that Lieutenant Wells was transferred to the Sixteenth, as that regiment suffered severely.

As to the initials, the Army Register gives no such officer as D. H. Wells, and, in fact, there are but four others of that name in the army at all. They are Major A. B. Wells of the Eighth cavalry, Major D. T. Wells, retired; Frank L. Wells, of the Eleventh infantry, and Surgeon Wells.

It will readily be seen, therefore, that the wounded officer can hardly be any other than the popular Salt Lake lieutenant.

Governor Wells was out of the city when the news came, and at once took the train for the city. He wired Senator Cannon, who replied that the name of the governor's brother did not appear in the list of seriously wounded.

There was nothing to do but wait, and the relatives of the lieutenant are anxiously awaiting tidings.

From the nature of all the information received, it seems reasonably safe to assume that the officer's injuries are not of a serious character.

Lieutenant Briant H. Wells is a son of the late Mayor Wells and a brother of the late Mayor Wells.

LIEUT. REUBEN S. TURMAN, Formerly With the 16th at Fort Douglas. Fatally Wounded.

of Governor Heber M. Wells. He is a native of Salt Lake, and graduated from West Point in June, 1894, and was assigned to the Second Infantry. A few years ago he married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jennings, his wife now being here. He succeeded Captain Lassiter on duty with the national guard of Utah when the latter was promoted. In that capacity he became acquainted to the militiamen of the state. When the war broke out he served for a short time as mustering officer, until sent to the front with his regiment.

LIEUTENANT SPENCE.

The news of the wounding of Second Lieutenant Spence, Sixteenth Infantry, was heard with regret. Spence is a capable, good-natured, gentlemanly officer, and has a host of friends in this city. It is hoped that his wounds will not prove of a serious nature. The

THE BICYCLE RACES

Were the Attractions at Calder's Park Yesterday.

SPORT WAS VERY GOOD

EMERY WON THE TEN-MILE MATCH RACE, TIME 26.33 3-5.

Fenton Was Only 5 2-5 Seconds Behind—State Records Smashed—There Was a Big Crowd at the Lagoon—The Sinking of the "Merrimac" Proved a Great Card.

The crowd at Calder's park yesterday afternoon and last evening was a large one, conservative estimates placing the number at nearly 5,000. The bicycle races and horse racing were the chief attractions, but many amused themselves in picnicking, boating and dancing. The horse racing events were a pacing contest between Doctor Malcolm and Bobby R. a quarter mile dash and repeat between Nancy H. and Stella W. and a trotting race between the two horses. The bicycle races were a ten-mile match race between O. E. Emery and T. D. Fenton, the two hottest undefeated champions of long distance. In the loss of Fenton won the start from the grand stand side of the track, Emery coming from the opposite side. In the first two miles Fenton gained from 15 to 20 yards on Emery, but from the third mile onward the two were neck and neck, and finally won the race in 25:34. Fenton's time was 25:34.

Emery's state record, made in '97, was 25:51, which was broken yesterday by Fenton's record of 25:34. The wind both riders were in condition to approach, if not break, the world's record for the distance.

In the quarter mile amateur two trial heats were run, Cutting, Froiseth, Brazier and Lawver qualifying for the final.

The one mile novice race brought out five starters—Max Froiseth, Roy Brazier and Ensign, Brazier won in 2:47 3-5. Ensign second, Froiseth third.

Shearman, Caine and Caine came out for the half mile professional. A time limit of 1:56 was placed on this event by Referee Coulter. The race was a close one, with Caine leading from the start. Caine finished first in 1:56 4-5, Caine second, Shearman third.

The two mile amateur handicap brought out a full field of eight starters. Tawver won from 30 yards, in 5:11 2-5, Froiseth second, Brazier third.

The one mile boys' under 16, had a full field of 10 starters. The race was a close one, with Caine leading from the start. Caine finished first in 1:56 4-5, Caine second, Shearman third.

In the final heat of the quarter-mile amateur, Froiseth won in 34 2-5 seconds, over the ver second and Cutting third. Froiseth and Lawver made a very pretty finish in this race, coming down the track neck and neck, but Lawver swung wide on the turn, and lost first place.

The last-mile professional, Shearman fell on the last turn, seriously injuring himself and disabing his wheel. He was unable to appear in the final race on the track again, and was quite sick last night.

The conveniences at Calder's park are quite adequate to the needs of the large crowds of people who attend bicycle races and the officials had their hands full keeping the crowd off the track and off the spectators' view of the race in the grand stand. There is room for improvement.

The officials in charge of the race meet yesterday were:

Referee—R. L. Conley.
Judges—J. N. Sharp, P. H. Clifton, W. E. Lake.

Timers—C. H. Dowse, J. C. Trieller, A. W. Cairns, C. H. Dowse, J. C. Trieller, A. W. Cairns.

Scorers—C. N. Butler, H. Senseney, H. S. Anderson.

Assistant Clerk of Course—G. S. Cowan.

Official Handicapper—J. N. Sharp.
Announcer—A. E. Beveridge.

AT THE LAGOON.

Sinking of the "Merrimac" Was a Great Success.

The Fourth of July at the Lagoon was a big day. So numerous were the patrons of the lovely little spot north of the city that it was all the company could do to transport the huge crowd of people to the lagoon, and they were all loaded to the guns, so that when the hour for the sinking of the Merrimac came, the grounds were thronged with a vast multitude of young and old, and great and small.

The crowd was augmented by the Utah Federation of Labor and their friends, who showed the crowd the place for their holiday excursion.

The menagerie, composed of mountain lion, bear, wild cat, etc., was a very imposing spectacle, showing in detail the rain of shot and shell from the Spanish frigate, the successful sinking of the ship by Lieutenant Hobson and his men, their escape from the vessel and their final surrender to the Spanish fleet.

The display of fireworks was very fine and the general effect most imposing.

The dancing pavilion was thronged during the afternoon and evening, and, although the successful sinking of the ship by Lieutenant Hobson and his men, their escape from the vessel and their final surrender to the Spanish fleet.
